

Helping Children and Adolescents Cope with Grief and Loss

A webinar series presented by Hospice Foundation of America

Hosted by nationally-known expert Kenneth Doka, Senior Bereavement Consultant to Hospice Foundation of America (HFA), the series will look at what lessons have been learned from extensive research into the issue, what emerging trends are on the horizon, and how hospices and other organizations can use bereavement camps and other strategies to best serve grieving children in their communities. The webinars will feature some of the best-known names in the field, as well as professionals who work with grieving children and adolescents every day.

- Bereavement Camps for Kids: Benefits and Challenges on Monday, February 1
- Bereaved Children and Adolescents: Lessons from Research on Wednesday, April 14
- Grieving Children and Adolescents: The Role of Internet Support on Tuesday, June 15

Each live webinar takes place from 1:00 - 2:30pm ET

The Organization Registration Fee for the 3-part Series is $250, which allows access to both the live webcast and an archived online program for one year past the live webinar, with unlimited CEs (1.5 hours).
